DO THEY MISS ME AT HOME!

Do they miss me at home-do they miss me? 'Twould be an assurance most dear To know that my name was forgotten, As though I had never been there.

To know that the tailor and landlord, And the banks where my paper is due, And hosts whom I now cannot mention, Had bannished me quite from their view. Do they miss me at home-do they miss me?

When the market for money is tight, And collectors in haste are pursuing Their debtors, by day and by night? Do the friends who once loaned me a "fifty,." And the others who loaned me a "ten," Heave a sigh of regret as they miss me,

And wish they could see me again? Do they miss me at home-do they miss me? When no longer I'm seen upon 'Change? And do those who were wont to assist me Say, " His conduct's infernal strange ?"

Does the Shylock who loaned me his money,

Look in vain for occasions to dun me. And wish I again were at home? But I know that my memory lingers Around the dear place as I roam; And while I've my wits and my creepers They'll miss me-they'll miss me at home!

To bear me to regions unknown,
